AN ACT ...; relating to: trespassing on the property of an energy provider and providing a criminal penalty.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, it is a Class H felony to trespass on the property of an energy provider, and a Class I felony to cause damage on the property of an energy provider if the actor intended to or caused an interruption or impairment of services provided by the energy provider. Under this bill, the definition of "energy provider" is expanded to include a company that operates a gas, oil, petroleum, refined petroleum product, renewable fuel, or chemical generation, storage transportation, or delivery system.

Because this bill creates a new crime or revises a penalty for an existing crime, the Joint Review Committee on Criminal Penalties may be requested to prepare a report.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

- Section 1. 943.01 (2k) (a) 6. of the statutes is created to read:
- 4 943.01 (2k) (a) 6. A company that operates a gas, oil, petroleum, refined
- 5 petroleum product, renewable fuel, or chemical generation, storage transportation,
- 6 or delivery system.

X

Section 2. 943.143 (1) (a) 6. of the statutes is created to read:

943.143 (1) (a) 6. A company that operates a gas, oil, petroleum, refined petroleum product, renewable fuel, or chemical generation, storage transportation, or delivery system.

Section 3. 943.143 (1) (b) of the statutes is amended to read:

943.143 (1) (b) "Energy provider property" means property that is part of an electric generation, distribution, or transmission system or part of a natural gas, oil, petroleum, refined petroleum product, renewable fuel, or chemical generation, transmission, or distribution system and that is owned, leased, or operated by an energy provider.

History: 2015 a. 158.

*Note: Under current law, a person may already be held personally liable for damage to property as a result of a crime, either in restitution as part of the criminal judgement under s. 973.20 or by a civil action under 895.446. Additionally, a person who conspires to trespass would be guilty under s. 939.05 (2) (c) and could be held responsible for damage in the same way as the person who commits the crime.
